FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

On the occasion of the 80th birthday of Ivo Babuška, the traditional PANM seminar will be reshaped into an international conference. Professor Ivo Babuška, a renowned numerical analyst and a distinguished expert in computational mathematics and modeling, started his professional career at the Mathematical Institute more than fifty years ago. The organizers will be happy to welcome him to Prague again.

In the presence of the guest of honor, the conference will further foster its traditional goals: (a) to bring together experts in the fields of numerical methods, computational modeling, and computational software; and (b) to encourage young scientists to present their research.

NO CONFERENCE FEE IS REQUIRED !

Conference venue: Mathematical Institute, Academy of Sciences, Žitná 25, Prague 1

Organizing committee: Karel Segeth (chairman), Jan Chleboun, Michal Křížek, Petr Příkryl, Alena Šolcová, Tomáš Vejchodský.

Proceedings: Selected papers will be published in Applications of Mathematics.

Accommodation: Several hotels are within walking distance (less than 5 minutes) of the Institute. Details will be provided later, see the conference web pages.
