

TACL School 2017 – Local information

General information

For general information (including local currency, public transportation etc.), see the TACL Local Information.

Getting to Olomouc

Olomouc is easily accessible from Prague by either train or bus. The main railway station (Hlavní nádraží) is located in the city centre, on subway line C (“red”). The easiest way to get there from the airport is to take the Airport Express bus line (AE); the bus stop is right in front of the arrivals hall. The standard ticket is not valid on this bus; the special ticket costs 60 CZK and is sold by the bus driver.

It is also possible to take the bus line 119 (the standard ticket is valid on this line) which connects the airport with the Nádraží Veveř metro station (line A – “green”). From Nádraží Veveř, take the subway to Muzeum (direction Depo Hostivař) and change to line C (direction Letňany) to get either to the Main railway station or the Main bus station.

The Main bus station (Florenc) is located one subway stop away from the Main railway station, also on line C. For detailed information about the fares and connections of the Prague public transport system see <http://www.dpp.cz/en>.
