

Pursuant to Act No. 283/1992 Coll., on the Czech Academy of Sciences, as amended, Act No. 341/2005 Coll., on public research institutions, as amended, and in accordance with the Statutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences dated 24 May 2006, the Czech Academy of Sciences hereby issues

the Foundation Deed of the Institute of Computer Science of the Czech Academy of Sciences
(in Czech “Ústav informatiky AV ČR, v. v. i.”) dated 28 June 2006 (English version dated 20 December 2006):

I

(1) The Institute has been established by the resolution of the seventy first session of the Presidium of the Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences (hereinafter the “CSAS”) held on 26 November 1974 effective from 1 July 1975, under the name the Central Computing Centre of the CSAS. By the resolution of the twenty eighth session of the Presidium of the CSAS held on 14 October 1980, the Institute was renamed the Centre for Computational Machines of the CSAS, effective from 1 November 1980, and pursuant to the resolution of the sixteenth session of the Committee of the Presidium for Managing Institutes of the CSAS held on 8 January 1991 it was renamed the Institute of Informatics and Computational Machines of the CSAS effective from 10 January 1991. Under section 18 (2) of Act No. 283/1992 Coll., the Institute became an entity within the Czech Academy of Sciences as of 31 December 1992. By the resolution of the eighteenth session of the Academy Council of the Czech Academy of Sciences held on 2 June 1998, it was renamed the Institute of Computer Science of the Czech Academy of Sciences as of 1 July 1998.

(2) Under Act No. 341/2005 Coll., the legal status of the Institute of Computer Science of the Czech Academy of Sciences was transformed from a state contributory organisation into a public research institution (abbreviated in Czech as “v. v. i.”) from 1 January 2007.

II

(1) The Institute of Computer Science of the Czech Academy of Sciences (hereinafter the “ICS”) is established for an indefinite period of time as a legal entity, identification number 67985807, headquartered in Prague 8, Pod Vodárenskou věží 271/2, postal code 182 07.

(2) The founder of the ICS is the Czech Academy of Sciences, an organisational body of the state, identification number 60165171, headquartered in Prague 1, Národní 1009/3, postal code 117 20.

III

(1) The purpose for which the ICS has been established is to carry out scientific research in the field of computer science, to contribute to the utilisation of its research results, and to provide a research infrastructure.

(2) The principal activity of the ICS is scientific research in the field of computer science (informatics), mainly the mathematical foundations of computer science, computational methods, artificial intelligence, computer models and architectures, computational and information systems and applications of computer science in related interdisciplinary areas. The ICS contributes to promoting knowledge and education and to utilising the results of scientific research in practice. It acquires, processes and disseminates scientific information and issues scientific publications (monographs, journals, proceedings, etc.). It provides scientific reviews, professional opinions and recommendations, consulting and advisory services. In cooperation with universities, the ICS carries out doctoral study programmes and provides training for young scientists. Within the scope of its activity, the ICS promotes international cooperation, including the organisation of joint research projects with foreign partners, participation in exchange programmes for scientists and the exchange of scientific information, as well as the preparation of joint publications. The ICS organises national and international scientific meetings, conferences and seminars, and provides the infrastructure for research including accommodation for its employees and guests. It pursues its aims both independently and in cooperation with universities and other research and professional institutions.

IV

(1) The director, the board and the supervisory board are the bodies of the ICS. The director is the statutory body of the ICS and is entitled to act as a deputy for the ICS.

(2) The basic organisational units of the ICS are scientific departments responsible for research and development and service departments responsible for the provision of infrastructure.

(3) The detailed organisational structure of the ICS is regulated by the rules of organisation issued by the director after being approved by the board.

V

This Foundation Deed shall be effective as of 1 January 2007.
