Notes on Hierarchical Theory of Systems and Applications.

A. C. Pugh; G. E. Hayton; N.P. Karampetakis

Abstract: The action of the full system equivalence transformation on a linear time-invariant system which may be considered as an interconnection of other subsystems at a lower level is considered. The generalized state space reduction problem of a linear time-invariant multivariable system is seen as a direct application of this theory.