A Computational Method for Reduced-Order Observers

Vassilis L. Syrmos; Petr Zagalák

Abstract: A computationally stable method for reduced-order observers of linear systems is proposed. This method is based on orthogonal transformations and adopts Diophantine matrix polynomial equations.