

The Institute of Contemporary History at the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic has the pleasure of inviting you to the international conference
Heroes and Villains of the Visegrad Countries' National History in the Historiographical Reflections of Neighbours.

The conference, held under the auspices of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic and with the generous support of the International Visegrad Fund, will take place at the Czernin Palais, Prague, 1-3 December 2011.

The conference proceedings will take place in the four national languages with simultaneous interpretation in the languages of the Visegrád Group and English.

Conference partners: Visegrad fund - Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of History - Polish Academy of Sciences, Institute of Political Studies - Slovak Academy of Sciences, Institute of History - Institute for Public Affairs Bratislava - - The PANT Association, and Czech Television, as the Media Partner.

For more information, see www.usd.cas.cz.