

Aleš Nechuta
alesnechuta@seznam.cz
+420 602 619 344
Ondrouškova 5, Brno 635 00

Work experience

07/2012 – 08/2013: Ministry of Foreign Affairs – Permanent Representation of the Czech Republic to the European Union – financial attaché

- identifying and protecting the interests of Czech financial market
- participating in working groups of European Council on expert, attaché and ECOFIN levels
- negotiating with Member States, European Commission, Members of European parliament
- communicating with other stakeholders (industry representatives, consumers associations)
- regular briefings and debriefings of senior officials (deputy ministers, ambassadors)
- responsible for 12 legislative proposals

09/2011 – 07/2012: Ministry of Finance – Financial markets department - officer

- analyzing and assessing the impact of upcoming EU regulation on the Czech financial market, recommendation of corresponding policies settings
- responsible for legislative proposals: Bank recovery and resolution directive, Capital requirements directive, Financial transaction tax directive

Education

08/2013-07/2014 Center for Economic Research and Graduate Education – Economic Institute (CERGE-EI) – Master’s degree with specialization in quantitative methods

08/2010-01/2011 Universität Basel, study internship, monetary economics and finance

06/2006-09/2011 Masaryk University, obtained a Master’s degree from finance, overall result A-

Language skills

English: C1 level, Cambridge ESOL CAE and FCE certificates

French: B2 level, one month internship of French language at Université Libre de Bruxelles

German: A2 level, internship at Universität Basel, Switzerland