EUROPEAN CRISIS: THE LIMITS OF CHINESE SUPPORT

December 6, 2011

VILÉM SEMERÁK

Abstract

Many European politicians have fixed their eyes on China in the past few months, which is an investor with sufficient funds that could stabilize the Eurozone. Although their arguments sound logical at the first glance, however, China will most probably not play the role of Europe's savior, one that would be willing to purchase bonds of the governments in trouble in large enough quantities or even invest in European bonds.
