The Europa Postmediaevalis group is pleased to announce that the First Annual Conference will take place in Prague (Czech Republic) on April 17-18, 2018. The aim of the conference is to present pottery assemblages of European regions for further discussion. We would like to cross the boundaries of different regions and speak on approaches, processing technology and its results.

Papers on any theme or topic within the field of post-medieval pottery will be considered. The conference will be hosted in English and Czech. Oral presentations (max. 20 min) must be prepared in English. Definitive Abstracts (not exceeding 200 words) for all accepted contributions will be published in a Booklet of Abstracts, which participants will receive at the Conference. All abstracts must be submitted by email to europa.postmed@gmail.com.

The Europa Postmediaevalis conference presentations will be published in the conference proceedings in appropriate period of time following the papers collection and editorial process.
