

THE MEMORY OF COMMUNISM

ITS FORMS,
MANIFESTATIONS,
MEANINGS

PROGRAMME

Venue: Goethe-Institut Prag (Masarykovo nábřeží 32, Praha 1)
Organiser: Ústav pro soudobé dějiny Akademie věd ČR
Partners: European Network Remembrance and Solidarity, Bundesstiftung zur Aufarbeitung der SED-Diktatur, Deutsches Historisches Institut Warschau, Goethe-Institut Tschechien, Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung Prag, Strategie AV21
Media partner: Český rozhlas Plus

September 17, 2019

9.00-10.00	Opening session
	Introductory speeches
	Key note
	Miloš ŘEZNÍK	Národní paměť a transnacionalita míst paměti: 1989 ve střední Evropě > National Memory and Transnationality of the Places of Memory: 1989 in Central Europe
10.00-11.30	Session 1
	Jan RUBEŠ	Úvahy o selektivní paměti > Reflections on Selective Memory
	Vera DUBINA	Contemporary "Memory-Building" in Russia: State History Policy and Local Initiatives
	Piotr KWIATKOWSKI	Communism in Polish Collective Memory after 1989
	Valeriya KORABLYOVA	The Communist Past in the Political Present of Ukraine
12.00-13.30	Session 2
	Muriel BLAIVE	The Black Book of Communism
	Florin ABRAHAM	Historiography and Remembrance Policies in Romania: The Role of Anti-Communist Ideology (1989-2019)
	Attila PÓK	The Memory of Communism in Hungarian Historiography
	Jekaterina PAVLENKO	Practices of Working with Soviet Past in Russia in the Last 30 Years: International Memorial Experience
14.30-16.00	Session 3
	Claudia-Florentina DOBRE	30 Years after the Fall: Communism in the Romanian Post-Communist Cinema
	András NAGY	The Communist Past in Hungarian post-1989 Literature
	Hannes KRAUSS	The GDR in post-1990 German Literature
	Alexander KRATOCHVIL	Literární diagnóza středoevropské „historické nemoci“ > Literary Diagnosis of the Central European "Historical Disease"
16.30-18.00	Session 4
	Helena ULBRECHTOVÁ	Otcové ve službách nacismu a stalinismu z perspektivy jejich synů > Fathers in the Service of Nazism and Communism from the Perspective of Their Sons
	Réka SÁRKÖZY	The Communist Past in Hungarian Documentary Movie
	Kamila ZYTO	The Memory of Communism in Polish Cinematography
	Claus LÖSER	Mirror & Projection. The Peaceful Revolution in East Germany and Its Cinematographic Echoes during the 1990's

September 18, 2019

9.00-10.45	Session 5
	Sabine STACH	How Tourists Remember: The Communist Past and International Tourism Industry
	Albert BING	Croatia: ...ism's and Confusing Memories: Controversies of the Communist Past in the Present
	Marie ČERNÁ	Podivná okupace. Vzpomínání na Sovětskou armádu v Československu 1968-1991 > A Strange Occupation: Remembering the Soviet Army in Czechoslovakia, 1968-91
	Sándor HORVÁTH	Anti-Communist Cultural Activities in post-1989 Remembrance
	Adéla GJURIČOVÁ	Od digitální utopie k remixu: Paměť komunismu v digitální éře > From Digital Utopia to Remix: The Communist Past in the Digital Era
<hr/>
11.15-12.45	Session 6
	Jürgen DANYEL	Communist Monuments after 1990: German Debates and Experiences
	Jaroslav CUHRA	Pamětní místa v českém veřejném prostoru > Memorial Sites in Czech Public Space
	Mile BJELAJAC	Serbia: contested memory
	Tomasz KOZŁOWSKI	The Forms of Treatment of the Communist Past in the Public Space in Poland after 1989
<hr/>
12.45-13.15	Project presentations
	Lena ENS	Commemorative Sites to the Communist Dictatorships in Europe in the 20 th Century
	Barbora LATEČKOVÁ – Jana PLAVEC	Ženy a revoluce > Meaning of Democracy: Women and Revolution
<hr/>
14.15-15.45	Session 7
	Jurij HADALIN	30 Years after the Fall of Communism in Slovenia: Controversies over the Interpretation of Memories during the Transition Period
	Sandra VOKK	Development of the International Museum for the Victims of Communism in the Former Patarei Prison
	Peter JAŠEK	Pamäťová politika na Slovensku a Nežná revolúcia > Memory Policy in Slovakia and the Velvet Revolution
	Toomas HIIO	Coming to Terms with the Consequences of the Soviet Occupation in Estonia: 30 Years of Memory Policy and Commemoration
<hr/>
16.15-17.45	Session 8
	Petra CHOVANCOVÁ	Spominanie na obdobie komunizmu v lokálnej pamäti > Remembering the Communist Era in Local Memory
	Klára KOHOUTOVÁ	Vliv politiky paměti na vznik a uchování romské minulosti > The Influence of Memory Policy on the Origin and Preservation of the Roma Past
	Miroslav VANĚK	Proměny paměti studentských aktivistů z roku 1989 > Changes in the Memory of Student Activists from 1989
	František NEUPAUER	Paměť politických vězňů > The Memory of Political Prisoners
<hr/>
17.45	Concluding remarks
	Oldřich TŮMA

www.usd.cas.cz/aktuality/how-we-remember/

ORGANISER:

PARTNERS:

BUNDESSTIFTUNG
AUFARBEITUNG

MEDIA PARTNER:

HEINRICH BÖLL STIFTUNG
PRAGUE
Czech Republic | Slovakia | Hungary | Croatia

THE EVENT IS PART OF THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES:

1989.
Changes
& Challenges
Česko