

múa

CITIZENSHIP UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE?

Refugees and revocation of nationality in the 20th century

VENUE: Villa Lanna
V Sadech 1, Praha 6
160 00
Czech Republic

PRAGUE
NOVEMBER 19-20, 2019

NOVEMBER 19, 2019

9:30 – 10:00

INTRODUCTION

Claire ZALC (Paris) / Michal FRANKL (Prague)

10:00 – 11:20

REVOCATION – A COMPANION OF MODERN CITIZENSHIP?

Chair: Rudolf KUČERA (Prague)

The Soviet Great Denaturalization in Historical Context

Eric LOHR (Washington, DC)

A System without Order:

Travel Documents and Mass Statelessness in Europe after World War I

Yaron JEAN (Beersheba)

11:20 – 11:40

COFFEE BREAK

11:40 – 13:00

CATEGORIES OF EXCLUSION I

Chair: Ágnes KELEMEN (Prague/Budapest)

„Staatenlos durch Ausbürgerung“ – The de-naturalization of naturalized Jews with Eastern European heritage in Germany from 1933 onwards
Alina BOTHE (Berlin)

How to denaturalize Jews under the Vichy France (1940-1944)?

The administrative routinization of everyday anti-Semitism

Claire ZALC (Paris)

13:00 – 14:00

LUNCH

14:00 – 16:00

CATEGORIES OF EXCLUSION II

Chair: Věra HONUSKOVÁ (Prague)

“Although he is of Christian religion...”. Deprivation of citizenship in post-Ottoman Turkey and the case of Sabri Mahir Bey
Elif BECAN (Paris)

Churches and the Revocation of Nationality for Jews: The Case of the Romanian Orthodox Church and Its Patriarch/

Prime Minister Miron Cristea

Ion POPA (Manchester)

Insecurization and the Citizenship regime: Politics of insecurity around Bangladeshi Migrants in India

Maggie PAUL (Adelaide)

16:00 – 16:20 COFFEE BREAK

16:20 – 17:40 (DIS)LOYALTY AND CITIZENSHIP
Chair: Kateřina KRÁLOVÁ (Prague)

Denaturalization of 'Escapees' in Times of Coup D' Etat in Turkey
Ibrahim KAYA (Istanbul)

The Revocation of Greek Citizenship of Greek Civil War Refugees:
The Case of Czechoslovakia
Nikola KARASOVÁ (Prague)

NOVEMBER 20, 2019

9:30 – 10:50 STATELESS TRAJECTORIES I
Chair: Thomas CHOPARD (Paris)

Successful emigrant entrepreneurs, siblings' trajectories and the impact of the denaturalization policy in Vichy France
Nathalie MOINE (Paris)

Six Jewish stateless families between the millstones of the Luxembourg authorities
Vincent ARTUSO (Luxembourg), Jakub BRONEC (Luxembourg), Georges
BÜCHLER (Luxembourg), Marc GLODEN (Luxembourg), Denis SCUTO
(Luxembourg)

10:50 – 11:10 COFFEE BREAK

11:10 – 12:30 STATELESS TRAJECTORIES II
Chair: Dieter HECHT (Vienna)

I would like to get my true nationality – the Italian one – back:*
applications for Italian citizenship and protection during the occupation of Istanbul (1919-1923)
Marie BOSSAERT (Rome)

Polish citizenship as a way to freedom: changing personal story in the documents of Jewish refugees from the USSR right after WWII
Sima VELKOVICH (Jerusalem)

12:30 – 13:30 LUNCH

13:30 – 15:30

CONTESTING DENATURALIZATION

Chair: Claire ZALC (Paris)

Ascribing Czechoslovakian citizenship to ex-Wehrmacht soldiers?
Practices regarding the repatriation of prisoners of war after 1945 at the Ministry of Interior in Prague

Ségolène PLYER (Strasbourg)

Nationality revocations and Immigrants judicial appeals in post WWII France

Laure BLÉVIS (Paris)

“Appalling moral blow.” Polish Jews appeal the 1938 revocation of citizenship

Michal FRANKL (Prague)

15:30 – 15:50

COFFEE BREAK

15:50 – 17:10

COLONIAL AND POST-COLONIAL DIMENSIONS

Chair: Wolfgang SCHELLENBACHER (Vienna)

Disputed Citizenship. Black families in Germany, 1918-1933

Laura Maria FREY (Basel)

Between Revoking and Invoking Citizenship: the problematic intersection of Apartheid South Africa, Pass Laws and the Post-Colonial Condition

Luan STAPHORST (Port Elizabeth)

17:10 – 17:50

CONCLUSION AND FINAL DISCUSSION

The workshop is supported by the Czech Science Foundation, project “Citizens of the No Man’s Land”, no 18-16793S, and the Agence Nationale de la Recherche (France) TREMPIN project, no 18-ERC1-0003-01. It is organized in cooperation with the ERC Consolidator project “Unlikely refuge?” and the ERC Consolidator project “LUBARTWORLD”.

To participate, please register via email at bartakova@mua.cas.cz.