12th Workshop on Mediaeval and Modern Age Ceramics

Panská Lhota
7.-9.10.2020

- New Approaches on Archaeological Ceramics
Research
- Ceramic Assemblages
Presentation with Discussion
- Experimental Part with Pottery Forming and Firing

Workshop provides an interdisciplinary platform for discussion on ceramics research. It is separated into the part with lectures and the part with experiment. Besides archaeologists, the meeting is intended for experts from other fields dealing with archaeological ceramics - museologists, ethnographers, historians, geologists or even professional potters. The workshop is open for visitors from public as well.

Workshop is organised in the framework of the project NAKI II „Vrcholně středověká keramika jako součást movitého kulturního dědictví“ DG18P02OVV020.
