

PHILOSOPHICAL CAFÉ

An informal meeting at the Institute of Philosophy of the Czech Academy of Sciences

TONY MILLIGAN

PRAVDA V DOBĚ POPULISMU TRUTH IN A TIME OF POPULISM

What happened to truth in a time of populism? Tony Milligan, a specialist in moral philosophy from King's College, London, who published on topics as diverse as the nature of love, our attitudes to animals, ethics of space exploration, and political justice and activism, has recently completed a new book on one of the hottest issues of political ethics.

Unlike many others who have despaired and concluded that we live in an era of “post-truth,” Milligan believes that truth retains its fundamental importance. However, unlike some absolutists about truth, he also argues that telling lies is sometimes permissible, or even necessary. It should be noted that Dr. Milligan kindly agreed to release his latest book in Czech translation even before the publication of its English original.

---

Kniha bude spolu se všemi ostatními svazky z edice Dnešní svět a vybranými novinkami k dispozici s 30% slevou.

The book as well as all other titles in the Dnešní svět (Today's World) series and a number of new releases will be available at a 30% discount.

Thursday, December 5, 16.00

Jazz Republic, entry through the Institute of Philosophy, Jilská 1, Praha 1