

An Ethical Modernity?

Hegel's Concept of Ethical Life Today

Edited by

Jiří Chotaš and Tereza Matějčková

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Notes on Contributors VII

Introduction 1

Jiří Chotaš and Tereza Matějčková

- 1 The Authority of Conceptual Analysis in Hegelian Ethical Life 15
W. Clark Wolf
- 2 Slaves to Habit: the Positivity of Modern Ethical Life 36
Bart Zantvoort
- 3 The Concept of Judgment on the Legal Stage: an Alternative View of Hegel's Theory of Freedom 58
Benno Zabel
- 4 Hegel's Ethical Life as the Attempt to Offer a Home to the Categorical Imperative 83
Paul Cobben
- 5 Formalism and the Actuality of Freedom: on Kant and Hegel 103
Christian Krijnen
- 6 Hegel's Philosophy of the Modern Family: Fatal Families? 118
Tereza Matějčková
- 7 "The European Spirit": Some Remarks on the Idea of Europe from a Hegelian Point of View 139
Stascha Rohmer
- 8 The State and Ethical Life in Hegel's Philosophy 154
Jiří Chotaš
- 9 "Sittlichkeit" in International Politics 173
Olga Navrátilová

10	Modern Philosophy and Philosophical Modernity: Hegel's Metaphilosophical Commitment	191
	Alberto L. Siani
	Supplement: Hegel's Travels to Bohemia	204
	Klaus Vieweg
	Index of Names	213
	Index of Subjects	216