

Library rules

Loan services

Off-site loans of books can be performed personally or by the interlibrary loan service that is provided by the librarian.

The user is responsible for the borrowed document throughout the loan.

The access to electronic information sources is offered by the Library on the website of ICS and it is followed by the rules of the database providers and e-services.

The user of the Library of ICS is aware of following:

- it is allowed to use the data solely for studying, teaching or research purposes and for his or her personal use, according to the Author's Law nr. 121/2000 Sb.
- it is forbidden to download systematically or regularly the whole content of electronic information sources or their large parts, especially to copy the whole numbers of electronic journals
- it is forbidden to copy, reproduce, distribute or otherwise spread the data or make them accessible to other person (no matter if for charge or free)