CONFERENCE:

Central European Literary Theory (Structuralism, Marxism, Phenomenology) and its Reception in the World

Theory has its history. And the history of Central European Literary Criticism is especially intricate. But do we truly know its story? And from which point of view? These and related questions will be entertained at the conference. More than twenty Czech and Chinese scholars will share their opinions on Mukařovský, Lukács, Ingarden, and other prominent 20th century critics. You are invited!
